

El Sueno Existe 19th & 20th August 2016 PROGRAMME

Friday

Time	Event	Where
7pm	Film, 'Land and Freedom' (Ken Loach, 1995) on the Spanish Civil War, followed by Q & A session.	Plas Main Hall Plas Mail Hall
9.30pm	Live music: Ignacio Rivera and Alejandro Reyes

Saturday

Time	Event	Where
All day	Exhibitions: 'Wise and Foolish Dreamers' and 'Spanish Civil War for Beginners' La Columna – Spanish Civil War re-enactment group will engage festival goers with a mock civil war militia camp and put on performances of songs from the Spanish Civil War. Mexican embroidery workshop with Dani House, repeated throughout the day.	Main hall/ foyer Plas grounds Plas Lawn (Plas Bar if wet)
10.15 - 11.15	Launch of 'We Touched the Sky', online learning package about Chile, produced by Chile 40 years On.'	Plas Main Hall
12.00 - 1.15	Workshop 1: with Adam Feinstein - Neruda and Spanish refugees	Plas main hall
LUNCH	Food available from Green Goat and Plas cafe
1.45	Short address by the mayor of Machynlleth (Tony Jones)	Plas main hall
2.00- 3.25	Workshop 2: workshop/performance by Pilar Lopez Martin on the history of the Spanish Civil War.	Plas main hall
3.35- 5pm	Workshop 3: Elizabeth Carola & Maria Andrews on the current refugee crisis - film from Lesbos, Greece + discussion, plus feedback on recent visit to the Calais refugee camp by volunteers from Machynlleth.	Plas main hall
5pm	Songs from Cor Gobaith, peace choir from Aberystwyth	Plas main hall
5.15	Salsa dance class with Rod Lawson	Plas main hall
5.15	Song workshop with Elizabeth Carola	Vane Tempest
BREAK	food available from Green Goat and Plas cafe
7.30- 8.30	Short Story Workshop with Consuelo Rivera. Short stories up to 150 words (similar to flash fiction). Participants from 14 upwards	Vane Tempest
7.40	Music from Alejandro Reyes, Christina Solana, Maggie Day, Consuelo Rivera, Copihues Rojos and Rompiendo Fronteras	Plas main hall

