SPECIAL SCREENING AND PRESENTATION

A cinematic trip to the spectacular landscapes of Chile during a time of political upheaval

The Magic Lantern presents a special screening of Pablo Larraín's real life story of Pablo Neruda, the Nobel prize-winning poet who captured the hearts of South Americans, as he is pursued round his native Chile by the president's special police but kept one step ahead of his would be captors by the Chilean people.

Presentation with Adam Feinstein

Relax after the film in the Foyer Bar to hear all about Pablo Neruda's life from his biographer and Pablo Larraín's consultant for the Neruda, Adam Feinstein. Signed copies of Adam's book will be available from the bar afterwards

El Sueño Existe -

This special screening is the perfect start to an inspirational weekend of Latin American fun, music and politics at the El Sueño Existe festival that keeps the spirit of legendary Chilean musician Victor Jarra alive.
